WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.

The delegation of the Alabama Legislature having neglected to bring a the authenticated copy of the resolution under which they are acting, will havait its arrival by mail before officially visiting the President. Governor Smith is with the delegation by request of the Legislature, to advise and support them. He has no official functions it to perform here in the convention. He does not fully sympathize with the Legislature in its call for additional troops, and expresses his confidence in his own ability to maintain the peace of the State. The people desire peace, and he has the assurance of men of both parties of support in his efforts. There is some disorder on the line of the Tennessee river, and north of Mobile, but elsewhere throughout the State there is no indication of disturbance, and no disposition to resist the law. In no other portion has any officer regularly installed in office been resisted in the performace of his duties. The Governor is apprehensive that during the excitement of the coming election imprudent parties may commit acts which will lead to serious disturbances unless restrained by some assurance/from the President that they will be put down by Federal authority. Beyond this assurance Governor Smith is inclined to think no Federal interference is necessary at present.

Attorney Carrington in support of the appeal of the Surrat case holds that the siatute of limitation as a defence was not before the court, in the pleadings and prosecution was not barred by the statute limitations do not extend to a person fleeing from justice and prosecution should have had an opportunity of proving that Surratt was not excepted from operation of the statute because he was a person fleeing from justice. A new indictment will be submitted to the grand jury.

S. Sub-Treasury in this city.

In the case of the United States against Commissioner, Rollins, it is a supplied to stop his march and wait for reincomments from Cindad, Peal and Badajos, which at last accounts had not also sent troops to Son Sebastian for the laws of Groat Britain, by Mr. Laird, and supposed to be deposited in the U. In the case of the United States against Commissioner Rollins, the principal evidence was that of Mr. Anderson, relative to the seizure of a distillery in Brooklyn, which went to show that one of the defendants in the case had released the distillery in question on the payment of a consideration. The examination on this point was objected to, but after a long discussion was allowed. The examination was not proceeded with, and the court adjourned
